

UPDATE from the Commonwealth Drought Task Force 💧

- Drought watch has been lifted for 6 counties.
- Adams county drought status improved from Warning to Watch.

Conditions have improved in southern Pennsylvania, but there is still significant recovery needed in many areas of PA, which is why Watch and Warning Declarations continue in many counties.

Water suppliers or municipalities may continue to ask residents for conservation actions. Residents should always follow any notifications provided by their local water supplier.

Get more details on this update  dep.pa.gov/drought

Drought Update

- Normal
- Drought Warning
- Drought Watch
- Drought Emergency

